

The 1st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE of the JOURNAL SCUOLA DEMOCRATICA will be hosted at the University of Cagliari (Italy), June 6 through 8, 2019, by Scuola Democratica, Centro Interuniversitario per la Ricerca Didattica (University of Cagliari and University of Sassari), Il Mulino Editore.

The Conference stands as an opportunity to present and discuss empirical and theoretical works from a variety of disciplines and fields covering education. The focal theme of the Conference is a trend currently affecting many countries invested by processes of globalization: the advent of what Colin Crouch called «post-democracy» (check Keynote speakers list). Organizers, promoters and partners of the Conference wish to invite educators, teachers, researchers, scholars, academics, scientists, professionals, experts and policy makers to join the conversation and bring the disciplines towards a more integrated set of alliances by:

- promoting a trans and inter disciplinary discussion on urgent topics;
- fostering debates among experts and professionals;
- diffusing research findings all over international scientific networks and practitioners' mainstreams;
- launching further strategies and networking alliances on local, national and international scale;
- providing a new space for debate and evidences to educational policies.

We invite you to submit abstracts for your presentation at the track session:

A.02. Training for Democracy in Populist Times

Convenor: Flaminia Sacca (Università degli Studi della Tuscia, sacca@unitus.it)

Keywords: Civic culture; School politics; Populism; Political socialization.

Although from different or opposite ideological and paradigmatic perspectives, both functionalist and critical theories have recognized the school's fundamental role in the formation of the nation-state and in the affirmation of representative democracy. In this panel we are interested in analyzing the role played (or that could be played) by the educational system in a time when both these crucial structures of modernity are suffering from a profound crisis. We therefore welcome contributions concerning the relationship between the political and the educational system in times of dysfunctional democracy and populism, from a theoretical or an empirical perspective, through case studies or comparative studies.

Papers could address one of the following issues:

- school as places for political socialization and as privileged spaces for citizenship education;
- educational system's good practices for the promotion of integration and respect of minorities as well as for the contrast of degraded forms of public discourse (hate-speech, xenophobia, etc.);
- the role of the school and the social media in the formation of teen-agers' political cultures;
- education and culture in governmental and in political parties' programs (populistic and no);
- voting behaviour in relation to education levels;
- education and political socialization of the populist political classes.

ABSTRACTS SUBMISSION

HOW TO SUBMIT

Abstracts should be submitted by February 28, 2019 (check Dates and Deadlines).

Abstracts should be edited in the template form (click to download) and then submitted via the submission platform.
